HENRY C. FRICK SPENDS MUCH TIME ON THE LINKS.

The Main Dining Room and the Palm Room immediately adjoining in the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE make a very attractive setting for the people who dine in them. Somehow, you feel at home in them right away.

There is not that loud talking which is so annoying to so many people. The orchestra is placed outside of the dining rooms—so the music comes to you in soft, pleasing strains, not in the loud manner which drowns conversation.

versation.

In addition, the food served is so good and so well prepared that everybody gets a full measure of satisfaction.

Just keep the Belleclaire in mind when you dine out. One experience will make you a regular customer.
